

PLYMOUTH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

July 2008

Number 1

“History on Parade”

On Saturday morning October 4th from 10:00 to 12:00 the Plymouth Historical Society will be having a special two hour “History on Parade” tour of Plymouth in a Classic Twin Cities Transit bus TCRT #1399. The tour will leave the Old Town Hall (Plymouth Historical Museum) in Plymouth Creek Park and visit selected historical sites and return back to the Old Town Hall. The tour will be narrated and a pamphlet with historical pictures and notes about the locations of farms, homes, schools and churches that have been the foundation of the growth of Plymouth will be provided.

So you and your family come and join us to relive the past – hurry make your reservations to get your tickets since space is limited to 50 people on the tour. You will get back by 12:00 noon in time to attend the “Plymouth on Parade” which starts at 1:00 PM.

Hurry don’t miss out on this special event as there will only be one tour. For reservations please contact Gary Schiebe 763-473-4889 or via e-mail garvschiebe@isp.com.

Date: Saturday October 4th

Time: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Cost: $7.00 per person, payment required in advance to assure you or your family a place on the bus.

(Note you must arrive at Plymouth Creek Park by 9:30 AM and be ready to board the bus since it will leave promptly at 10:00 AM. We will make at least one stop at a church for tour and rest room stop.)
